

Dreams of Access

Dreams are the essence of life,
For it is during our life,
We strive, drive and pursue,
With passion to capture, the means and ability to,
Access the people, events and themes,
Esoterically portrayed within our dreams.
Dreams, depict our delirious and deserved desires.

Accessibility, is the ubiquitous element in life.
For it is during our life,
We strive and drive to conceive,
The plethora of opportunities presented to us,
And moreso, the plethora that are not.
It is then if we believe, and accordingly act,
We can achieve anything, we so deserve and desire.

You, can access anything you deserve and desire,
Providing you have the knowledge, necessary.
Accessibility to people, is like, petals to a rose,
Words to a book, a key to a lock, a lid to a box,
And most importantly, time to a clock.
Now you have, the petals, the words, the key, the box.
And all the time in the world, with my praise and support.

Deservedly yours.
